

MORIN ELLIOTT & SUM INSURANCE JOIN ONE80 INTERMEDIARIES

Established in 1988, Morin Elliott Associés Ltée, part of SUM Insurance, possesses full authority on our various underwriting subscriptions, which utilize first class security committed to our business model. When you contact us you are working with a decision-maker empowered to make decisions in real time, the only time that matters to you! We offer competitive commissions and best of class service. Morin Elliott is licensed in the province of Quebec and does not require broker contracts or volume commitments.

Effective August 1st of this year, SUM and Morin Elliott have joined One80 Intermediaries. Based in Boston, MA One80 is a highly focused wholesale brokerage and program manager providing specialized insurance solutions with expertise in marine, transportation, property, casualty, financial lines, medical stop loss, and personal lines. Reinforced by best-in-class intellectual capital, One80's entrepreneurial culture allows it design programs to meet the needs of its brokers and clients, providing an innovative approach to risk.

The two firms value propositions and animating ethos are very congruent- they are each the fastest growing specialty market in their respective countries, and have now joined forces to deliver further innovation and deploy resources together.

“One80 has rapidly expanded throughout the United States and we look forward to establishing an international footprint with Strategic Underwriting Managers,” said Matthew F. Power, President of One80 Intermediaries. “SUM and One80 uphold a similar entrepreneurial culture and strategic long-term vision. With that we are confident that together, we will further support our brokers on both sides of the border.”

“We have full authority on each of the programs we underwrite and are proud of the long relationships with each company with whom we trade. In joining One80 we look forward to developing additional capacity, and introducing new products and innovations into Canada,” said Jeff Somerville, President at Strategic Underwriting Managers. Inc.
